

South – Andong

<Unesco Traditional Village>

<Itinerary>

- Andong Hahoe Folk Village [UNESCO World Heritage]
- Byeongsan Seowon Confucian Academy
- Bongjeongsa Temple [UNESCO World Heritage]

Andong Hahoe Folk Village

Introduction

Hahoe Village boasts exquisite scenic sights: the elegant Nakdong River flowing around the village, the magnificent Buyongdae Cliff, endlessly unfolding sandy beaches, and lush, ancient pine trees. Visitors can take the boat to Buyongdae Cliff for a panoramic view of the village.

Byeongsan Sewon Confucian Academy

Introduction

Byeongsan Seowon was one of 47 places in all of Korea and 2 in Andong not destroyed during the rule of Daewongun [Politician of Joseon Imperial family, 1820 ~ 1898] in 1868.

Bongjeongsa Temple

Introduction

In 1972, while reconstruction work was being done on Geuknakjeon Hall, records were discovered stating the hall was repaired in 1363. This discovery gave concrete evidence that Geuknakjeon Hall is the oldest wooden building in the nation.